2. Listen carefully and think about how the music makes you feel.
3. Close your eyes if you want and imagine the pictures the song brings to mind.

Think About It...

- What images or places came to mind while you listened?
- How did the music make you feel?
- What parts of Alabama do you think the song is about?
- Which song was your favorite? Why?
- How does music help tell the story of a place and its people?

Alabama music
feels like home.
