

Choose Peace

THINK • SOLVE • GET ALONG

People have always had disagreements, but there are peaceful ways to solve problems. Peaceful choices help families, friends, and communities work together.

Fold a piece of paper in half. On the inside, list peaceful ways to solve disagreements.

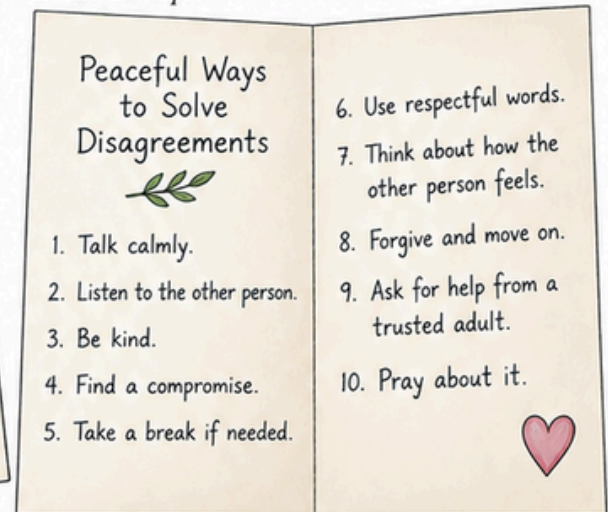

Directions:

1. Take a piece of paper and fold it in half (like a card).
2. On the front, you can decorate it with a title or a drawing.
3. On the inside, list as many peaceful ways to solve disagreements as you can think of.
4. Be creative! You can also add small drawings.
